

Uses for Earth Charter audio spots

---

The four Earth Charter audio spots may have different uses depending on the working tools with which you count. Below, we list some ideas for using these audios that allow you to bring your activist closer towards the environment, human rights, economic justice and a culture of peace.

1 . For the urban spaces

Make a list of local radio and internet broadcast

- Make them a proposal for the transmission of these spots
- Share the spots and the Earth Charter to enhance awareness of the context of the messages
- Follow up to the dates and times they will transmit the spots

Approach local schools and universities

- Share the spots and the Earth Charter to enhance awareness of the context of the messages
- Give them a date to visit the school and work a small workshop using the spots
- Make a proposal to transmit the spots with some audio system in school breaks.
- Leave a cd recorded with these spots so that school teachers can work with the material subsequently

Approach local government authorities that work the issues of Earth Charter

- Share the spots and the Earth Charter to enhance awareness of the context of the messages
- Propose to join an activity they have and develop a workshop using the spots
- Listen to some of the ideas they may have to use the audios

Everything that comes to your mind

- Remember that your imagination has no limits to identify other sites where you can use these spots

1. For the rural spaces

Approach local schools

- Share the spots and the Earth Charter to enhance awareness of the context of the messages
- Give them a date to visit the school and work a small workshop using the spots
- Make a proposal to transmit the spots with some audio system in school breaks.
- Leave a cd recorded with these spots so that school teachers can work with the material subsequently

Organize a drawing contest that reflect each of the messages of the spots

- You can perform this activity in a community plaza Saturday or Sunday
- This activity can be made with children, youth and adults
- Approach local authorities in advance so you have a permit to make the activity

Everything that comes to your mind

- Remember that your imagination has no limits to identify other sites where you can use these spots